Sir,

In reply to your No Fl. 2796 dated the 11th instant enquiring if the reward of Rs 4,000/- and the bonus of Rs 100/- sanctioned to Mr K. Shama Iyengar and P.S. Venkatachar respectively, can be met by reappropriation, I have the honor to state that the sanctioned Budget Estimate of this Department being insufficient to meet the current expenditure, sanction has been applied for, for an additional budget grant of Rs 35,000/-. This being the case, no funds can be provided for the purpose indicated in your docket. The expenditure should, therefore, be met by a special grant. It can be debited to Head IX "Miscellaneous" (b) "Other Charges."

Myself was asked if the amounts could be met by reappropriation since there was no provision in the current years Budget for Kheda charges. The Comptroller states that according to the Sanctioned Budget estimate of his Department is insufficient to meet the current expenditure, no funds can be provided for the purpose ~~above referred to~~ and that the expenditure may be met by a Special Grant which can be debited to ~~Head~~ IX "Miscellaneous (2) Other Charges".

2. The Comptroller in response to the request to point out any saving from which the above charge can be met states that the amounts may be debited to "Miscellaneous (3) Reception of Important Personages," as the original charges on account of Shikharis operations in connection with the visit of H.E. the Viceroy were debited to that head.

3. ~~Under the various heads~~ The charges ~~above referred to~~ ^{suggested} as ~~above~~ by the Comptroller will be debited to "Miscellaneous (3) Reception of Important Personages".

The Comptroller is requested to present ~~Re-appropriation in the manner above due to the H. Chamberlain to the Govt. of India. The Chamberlain is in adjustment of the arrears of Kanday and due by him to Govt.~~
